Will You Remember

You may not for long recall all that happened this year . . . carly morning chapel . . . classes at 8:25 . . . dashing to the library . . . basketball games . . . football intramurals . . . dates . . . long lazy afternoons . . . bull sessions at the Ad Building . . . dances . . . outings . . . campfires . . . the warm sleepiness of the campus in springtime . . . May Day . . . graduation.

Into each student's life have come these fading moments . . . fleeting friendships . . . incidents that may be almost forgotten. Only by some word . . . some picture . . . may these memories ever remain. It is for this purpose, then . . . to bring back, in moments of reminiscence, our college days . . . the fun we had . . . the joy of being young . . . of having friends . . . of being free . . . for this purpose we give you Lenoir Rhyne of '44-'45 . . . in this, the 1945 HACAWA.

ALICE, ADELAIDE, AND DAVID.

To Miss Margaret E.

elleman | C | T |

A friend to everyone who comes within her sphere of life . . . a wealth of love within her heart . . . a wonderful Dean . . . a model of sincerity, tact, and graciousness. For all of this . . . for a service of seventeen years . . . we dedicate this, The 1945 Hacawa, to Miss Margaret E. Alleman.

In Memoriam

To those members of the class of 1945 who would have been with us, but who are now in this service of our country.

We think of you. ... with hope ... with sadness . . . with much pride. Hope for the safe and swift return of all sadness for those who have so willing paid the supreme price . . . pride in the fact that you are fighting for us . . . for our freedom . . . for our principles. We think of you . . . we remember . . . we will not forget.

Message from the President

We are living in an evil world. We are in the midst of a great war. We fight great enemies. But our Commander-in-Chief is greater than all of our enemies. Therefore I say to you in the language of St. Paul:

"Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Praying always with all power and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints."

P. E. Monroe.

CLASS HISTORY

The year was 1941 . . . one hundred forty green and radiant freshmen knocked at the doors of opportunity at Lenoir Rhyne . . . four years ago . . . so much has happened since then . . . draftboards have rationed us to one-fourth of our number.

Four years of work . . . and play . . . and fun. Classes . . . labs . . . practice teaching . . . dances . . . open house . . . chapel . . . Trex and Sloop with the Bear Cage Junior Store . . . everyone cutting classes to string crepe paper . . . a wonderful Junior-Senior.

Yes, we've memories to keep us going in the future . . . a better Junior-Senior because we're the guests . . . class day . . . invitations . . . graduation . . . our gift to the school. Lenoir Rhyne has given us much . . . we've gained knowledge and friends . . . we feel reluctant to depart . . . don't forget us! Perhaps we leave a little of ourselves with you!

MARJORIE FORTENBURY.

CLASS HISTORY

Since the beginning of our freshman year our number has dwindled . . . dwindled and dropped considerably. But down through the years, even with this discouraging factor, we've had the best leaders . . . Ernest Lineberger . . . Emma Lee Rhyne . . . now "Little Wag."

According to the usual procedure, there's been the struggle of the Junior Store . . . trying to make dough . . . selling everything when we couldn't get anything . . . then came November and our Thanksgiving dance . . . no men . . . strutting our stuff at Kampus Kapers, a colored minstrel . . . Flora-Doras . . . Frankie and Grover . . . the blues singers . . . talent of a superior quality . . . it sold higher on the market than ever before! And, to end the year . . . a super production of the annual Junior-Senior . . . quietly raising the roof over this bigger and better get-together.

PAULINE BLANKENSHIP.

The first big adjustment is over . . . we've earned the privilege of the distinct title of upperclassmen . . . now we settle down to some serious thinking . . . and that more immediate necessity, serious work.

We had Yonts, and now Vedder . . . we drafted a new constitution . . . we played big sister to the freshmen. Outstanding events in the year's history . . . huge sales of Freshman hats . . . they wore them, too . . . initiation . . . Freshman-Sophomore outing . . . a big bonfire on the ball field . . . plenty to eat . . . the spring dance . . . letters to the boys from our class that are in service . . . looking forward to next year . . . we'll climb another step in the ladder of education.

CLASS HISTORY

September, 1944... meekly we began our life on Lenoir Rhyne campus... what a life!... opening excitement at the traditional Freshman Sunday... initiation galore... hilarious pranks... the annual wedding... errand running for the upperclassmen... all in our lives as freshmen... new faces, new friends.

Then classes . . . settling down . . . we organized too . . . and began to take our place under Hughey's leadership . . . entertainment along with work . . . a big social at the ball park . . . our boys, "green" though they may be, enter the intramural football games . . . carrying off for us the cherished championship . . . Bond Drive supported . . . committee ably headed by Holling . . . we lead the parade in our school . . . now we look forward to being upperclassmen . . . but this fact can't be evaded . . . Freshman life was swell!

We are Lenoir Rhyne's contribution to the world of business . . . and tomorrow we take our place in that world . . . but for a year we have been a part of college life . . . an important part. We organized an active class with Betty Simpson to lead us . . . we have played our role well . . . shorthand books . . . typewriters . . . accounting . . . bookkeeping . . . these have been our daily diet.

Yes, tomorrow we step into the business world . . . prepared . . . eager for its work and adventure. We answer her call . . . but pause to look back . . . one perfect year.
